

Slovakia: economy on the rise, surprising holiday destination

On November 5 2010 you are cordially invited for an international symposium on the theme "Slovakia: economy on the rise and surprising holiday destination". The municipality of Hoogeveen organises the meeting in cooperation with the Embassy of Slovakia, the Slovak Tourist Board and the Twinning foundation Hoogeveen-Martin.

The symposium will take place in Gasterij De Schildhoeve at Fluitenberg, the Netherlands, from 10.00 to 17.00 hours.

You can expect an informative and interactive meeting with opportunities for networking.

The subjects for this day are: tourism in Slovakia, trade relations between the Netherlands and Slovakia and the benefit of a twincity. The topical subject of water management also gets attention. In the afternoon you can choose from a series of workshops.

Please register if you are interested in the symposium. You can send an e-mail to Mariska Groot-Obbink: m.groot-obbink@hoogeveen.nl. You will soon after receive the full program. Participation is free of charge.

We are looking forward to meeting you on November 5. Dúfame, že Vás budeme môcť 5.novembra u nás privítať.

Partners:

Slovak Tourist Board

Embassy of Slovakia

HOOGVEEN. MET EEN HOOFDLETTER H